

Jack D. Alexander

---

Jack Alexander has been a leader in applying credible science to rangeland management through his work as a scientist, consultant and rangeland management specialist.

He has played an instrumental role in Tapping the Top and the Student Employment Workshop. These programs have been an important part in transforming young people from students to professionals.